

Alejandro's Daily Routine

Weekdays

I always wake up at 1pm and have a shower before lunch

I usually walk to school at around 2pm

Normally I get home at 10pm and have diner, except once a week where I grab diner at a restaurant

I sometimes do my assignments if I need to hand them by the next day

Otherwise I normally stay up until 5am playing games with my friends

Weekends

I hardly ever go to bed early the day prior to wake up at 7am to play games

I sometimes have to go to work at 1pm, sometimes later or earlier and stay there until late in the night

Once a week a girl at my job asks to go grab some beers after work and I usually take her offer

When I get home after a long day of work, I always take a shower before passing out on my bed

I hardly ever prepare for school on Sunday, so I often have to rush things the day after
